Bridges may connect cities and roads, but their purpose is to span an impassable area, usually water. The "humpback" Roseville bridge and the Philo-Duncan Falls bridge belong to different communities; however, they played an important part in merging the area into one complete school district. "With a New Sense of Pride" be reminded of the success of this school year as we cross these bridges and others in life.

THE HIGHLIGHT IS ON

YOU

WITH A NEW SENSE OF PRIDE

YOU were the highlight of the year, "with a new sense of pride," because without you this year as it was would not have been possible. Everyone of YOU has to realize the success of the year was dependent on your showing-up, reliability, energy, and support. YOU made it happen! YOU were there! YOU were everywhere! YOU were great!

Thank you for being YOU!

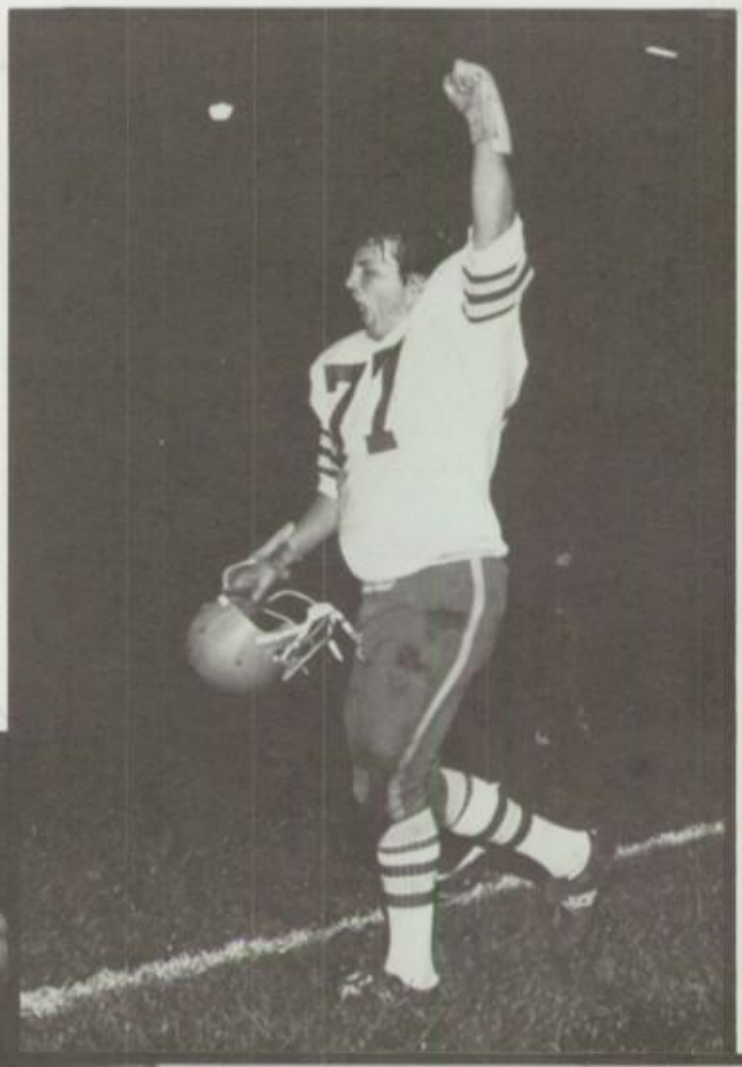
LIFE

AND COMPETITION

There was a renewed feeling of pride from everybody, not only in student life, but also in competition. There was determination in practice and enthusiasm towards competing against other teams.

With smiles on their faces and laughter on their lips, the students reacted to new and amusing situations with the carefree spirit typical of teenagers. Eating candy in study hall, copying homework, crowding in the cafeteria line, pushing someone out of the snow, and sneaking a kiss at the locker give us a new sense of pride in sharing with one another.

These aspects of student life, sports, and many others contributed to making another successful year. Let's look back "with a new sense of pride" on the various occurences of the year.



BEGINNINGS

Beginnings lay the foundations for endings, whether it be life, love, or the school year. However, as something begins, the ending is yet undetermined.

Unfortunately, most students do not begin the school year with the enthusiasm that fills them at the approach of summer and the end of school.

If students would compare the school year to a walk across a bridge, they could be optimistic from the beginning for knowing that the end will definitely come and they have accomplished something concrete and they are able to move on.

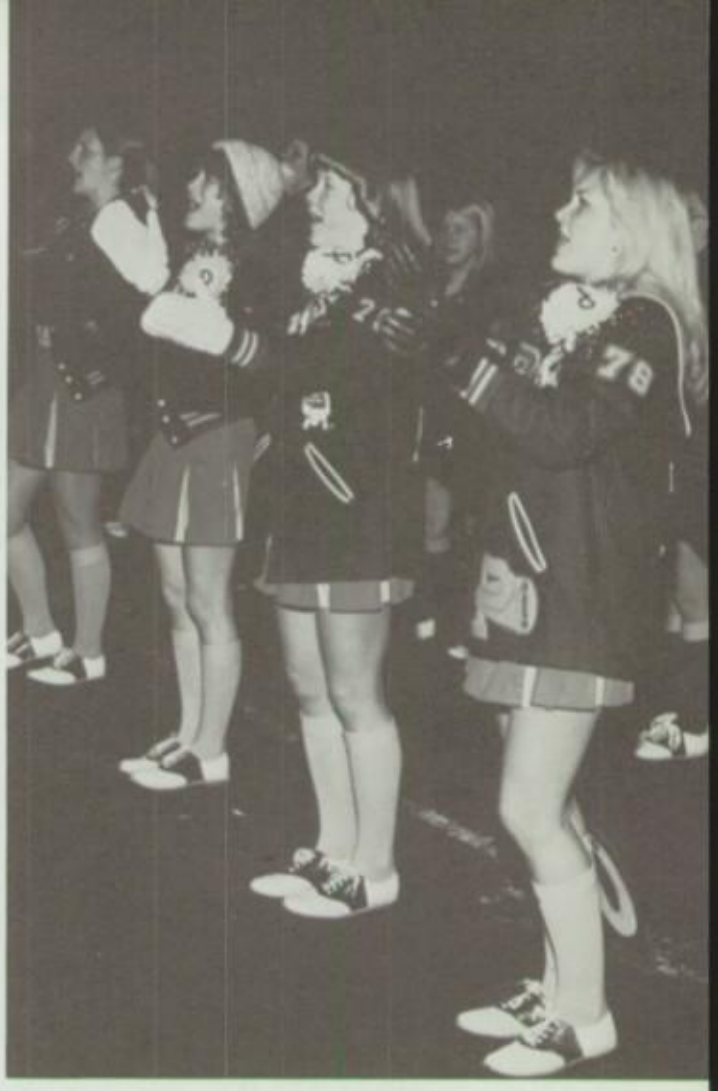
A JOB WELL DONE

The three cheerleading squads, varsity, reserve, and freshmen, mount up in their fifteen-man stunt.

The varsity cheerleaders are Mel Trout, Mel Bates, Electa Benadum, Jackie Gallogly, and Diane Wilson.

Tina Paisley and Cindy Trout happily watch the victory over New Lexington.

The freshman cheerleaders are Lisa Swick, Lisa Bates, Carol Toole, Julie Zink, and Christy Flinn.



Varsity cheerleaders root the team on in the victory over Maysville on parents' night.

The reserve cheerleaders are Caralee Cartwright, Tina Paisley, Cindy Trout, Ann Perkins, and Belinda Soller.

The cheerleaders had a tough job to carry out, since it was their responsibility to get the fans' spirit going, but they did it with plenty of pep.

The cheerleaders were involved in many behind the cheering scene activities such as summer camps, car washes, making signs, selling spirit towels, and making different skits for the pep rallies.

The advisor for the cheerleading squads was Mrs. Ann Longstreth.

Buck DeBolt gets psyched for the victory over Crooksville to follow the pep rally.

This "judge" chose the senior class as the loudest.

The junior class stands to give its "v-i-c-t-o-r-y" battle cry.

Mr. Spurgeon's wet face shows the spirit of the students as did our super victory over New Lexington.

Without the band to play, the pep rallies just wouldn't be the same.

Pep Rallies Teach Spirit

Did you realize there was a lesson to be learned in the pep rallies? We were taught by the cheerleading instructors how to "release ourselves and let the spirit flow."

Fortunately, the usual classroom routine was dropped and we entered into one of enthusiasm, spirit, and pride with a lot of loud yelling contributing to the success of the lesson. Everyone who learned the lesson of spirit made the atmosphere of enthusiasm possible.

Having studied longer than any other class, the seniors won the spirit stick in the "battle cry" competition. All the students appreciated the treats they received for their show of spirit.

The Journalism class says, "Pass the paper!" the fifties way.

Varsity cheerleaders decide on the schedule for the pep assembly.

The varsity volleyball team held a record of 5-8, but the reserves slipped to a 3-10 mark overall. The records did not indicate the ability of the teams, yet it was definitely present. Johnnie Henderson, a varsity player, rated well enough to be named to the MVL All-Star First Volleyball Team with Carol Shipley and Diane Wilson having received honorable mention.

The teams were coached by Miss Phyllis Morgan.

MacLAINE MAKES ALL-MVL GOLF TEAM

The golf team, coached by Mr. Roger Bentley, had a 2-7 league record and a 2-10 mark overall. The problem faced by the team was the schedule. At the beginning of the season, the golfers were pitted against tough teams while still improving on their game. In the later part of the season, they defeated Riverview and Tri-Valley, which boosted their spirits going into the tournaments.

In tournament action the golf team received seventh place in the MVL competition and fourth in the sectional tourney.

Despite the team record, Tim MacLaine was named to the All-MVL Golf Team, which shows promise for next year.

The summer band played at the Muskingum County Fair.

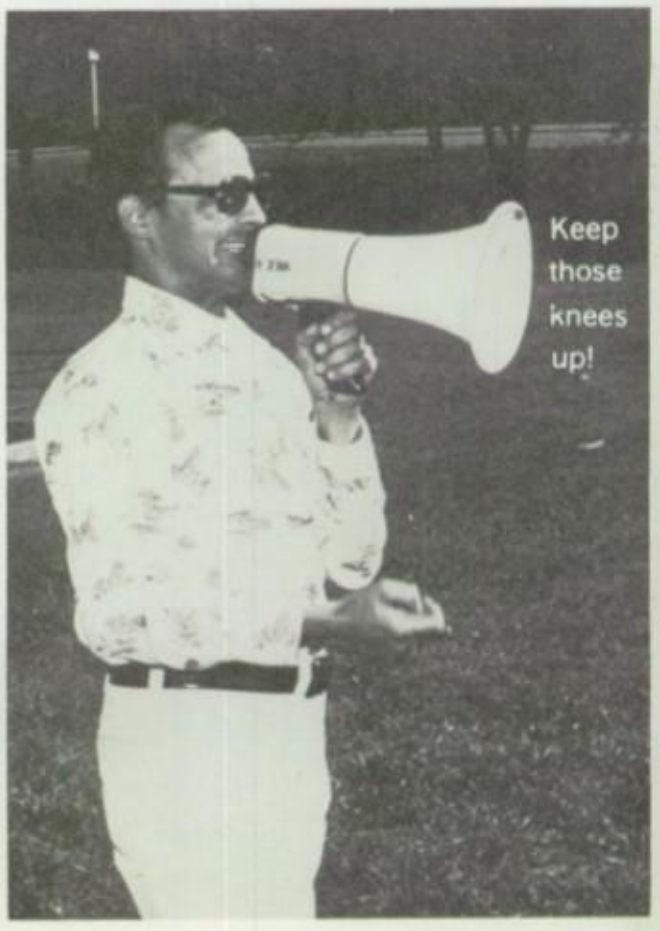
PRACTICES, PARADES, PEP RALLIES, AND . . .

Practices, parades, pep rallies, and pre-game were a few of the band activities. From here the marching band went into halftime shows, which were well received around the MVL league.

The band had to be in the best form for the band contests and bonanzas held around the area. After the cold outdoors, came concert band tryouts, but this did not include playing at the pep rallies and providing a pep band during basketball season.

By playing the "fight song" the band can show its spirit, too.

The twirlers for the band were Jodi Danison, Mindy Cable, Head Majorette Teri Wheeler, Feature Twirler Jeff Brooks, Michele Christman, and Christy McConaha.



Keep those knees up!

The band performs one of their applauded songs for the home fans.

The flag corp had to learn a new routine before the Athens contest.

After school practices are needed to perfect the halftime performances.

The flag corp members are (standing) Terri Cramer, Polly Rider, Captain Brenda Bates, Tammy Bissel, Linda Stall (kneeling) Sherri Rittberger, Tina Gibson, Pam Mason, Darla Anderson, Debbie Wheeler, Karen Liford, and Laurie Mummert.

M.A.J.V.S. CAN NOT BE MATCHED

The Muskingum Area Joint Vocational School (MAJVS) was the learning center for many students who were seeking a program to study occupational skills. These students were people from all the neighboring high schools, including Philo.

The facilities at MAJVS provide the students with learning experience in nursing to auto mechanics courses. The students studied in different surroundings than those of PHS, and they learned things that students at PHS could not possibly match.

HARD WORK PAYS OFF

The team practices blocking while Coach Parsons runs a srint out pass.

During a rough practice, Mike Adams is tackled while others look on.

Dedication, determination, pride and a lot of hard work go into making a team, whether it is successful or not cannot be decided on a record. Proudly enough, the football team won the MVL with all of the above and a little more.

Their story of success is one of long and hard work. Two-a-day practices began in August, rough and tiring, they proved to be worthwhile for all.

School opened; the season began. Recovering from the first loss to Lakewood, the team compiled win after win. Then, the season ended, all too soon for most, but we were the champs!

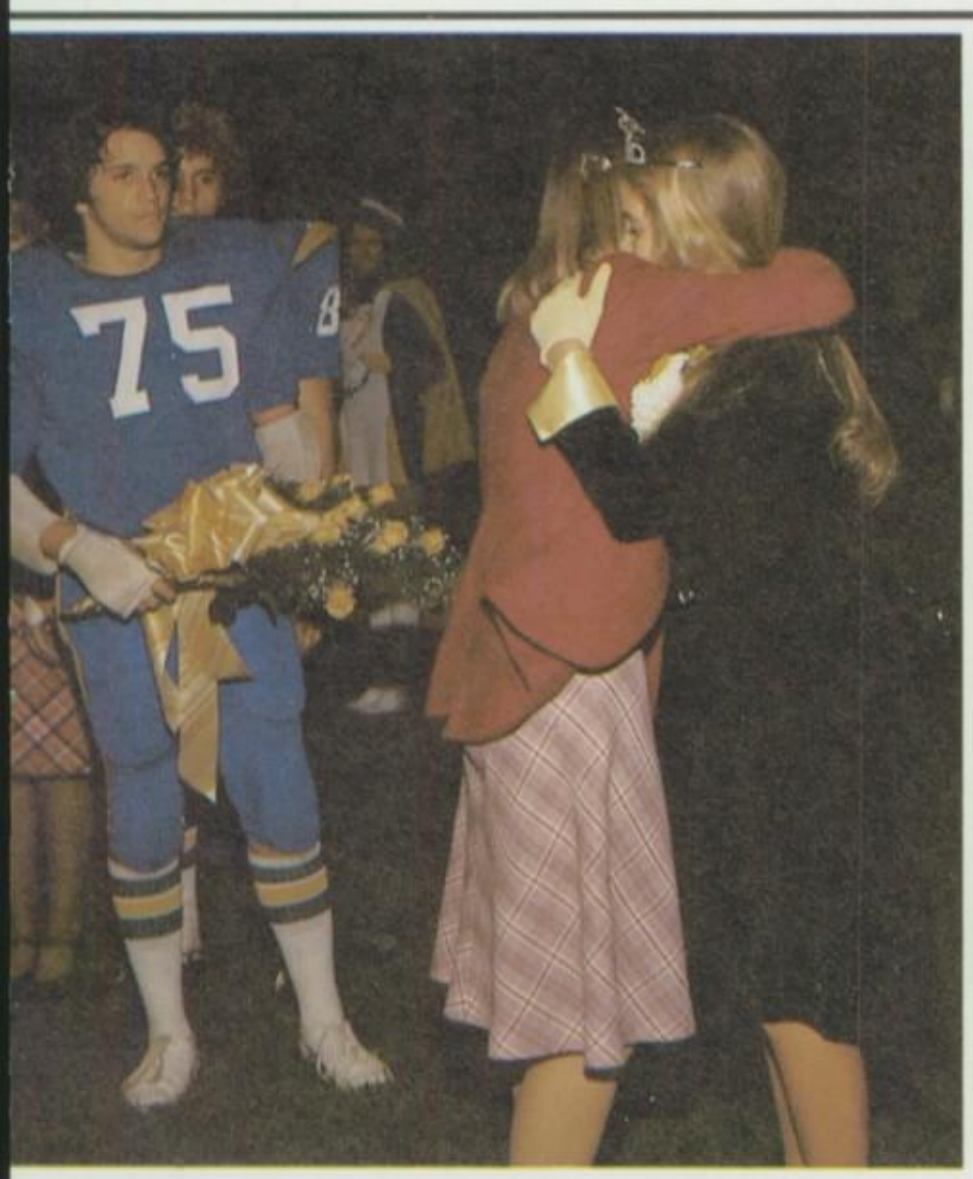
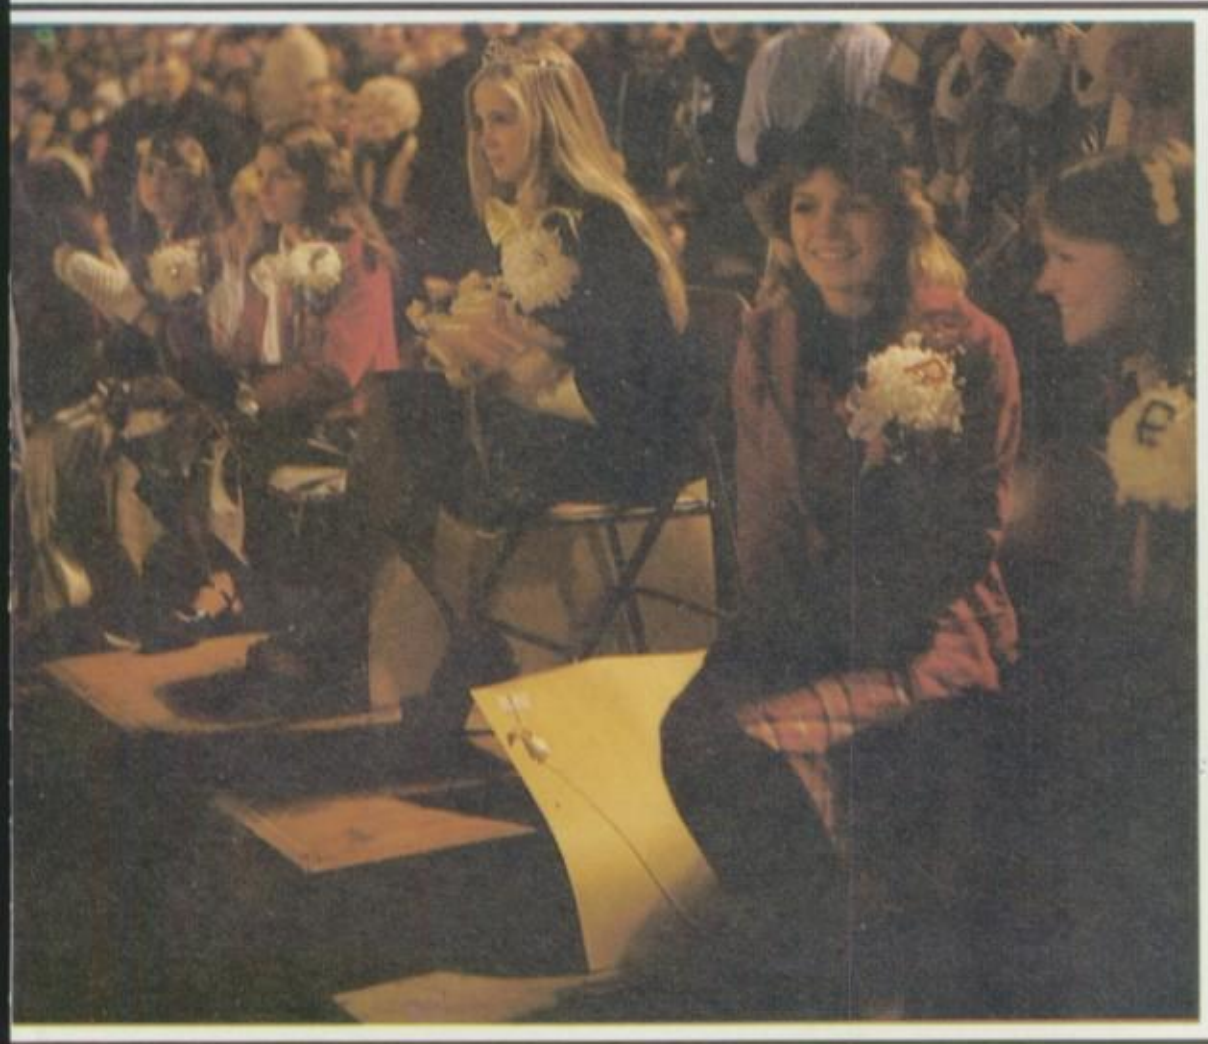
After being crowned the 1977 Homecoming Queen, Camar gave her acceptance speech and wished the team good luck in the game.

Janis Riley, the 1976 queen, and Camar share a warm hug after the crowning.





It wasn't just another Friday night. It wasn't just another football game. It was the 1977 Homecoming with Camar Cartwright reigning as queen. That made it more than special. Sure, it was great to beat New Lex, but it would not have come so near if it had not been for the lingering thought, "It's our Homecoming! It's our Homecoming!"

The queen and court intently watch the exciting game, while New Lex is trampled.

These couples share a quiet moment between fast dances and good refreshments.

THEY ONLY COME OUT AT NIGHT

The seniors did their best to convince everyone that they "only come out at night," with their bats, ghosts, and goblins.

Couples as well as singles had a good time listening and dancing to the music the Muff Brothers played for the Homecoming Dance.

During the dance, refreshments were available and served by freshmen Marty Bintz, Kristi Bradley, Amber Calendine, Renee Jardine, and Wanda Frame.

Keeping an eye out for ghosts and goblins were Mr. and Mrs. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Parsons, and Mr. and Mrs. O'Reilly.

These girls are having a good time, since "They Only Come Out at Night."

Bryon Cartledge and Dee McHenry enter into the autumn atmosphere.

With their dates, Laurie and Sharon Mummert exchange comments about the dance.

MVL CHAMPS

After compiling the best record in the MVL, 8-1, the football team went on to receive many other high honors. Ten members of the team were named to the 1977 All-MVL Football Team. They were Mike Danison, Don Cassady, Mike Melick, Mike Paul, Bret Steed, Mike Adams, Rod Swingle, Joey Luckett, Denny Holland, and Dave Scott.

The Bud Mayes Memorial Award went to Mike Danison at the fall sports' banquet. Other awards were presented to Dave Scott for best defensive back, Mike Melick for best defensive lineman, Bret Steed for best offensive back, and Don Robbins who was chosen as the most improved player of the year.

In January the All-SEO Football Team was announced and Philo had members on the team to boast about. They were Don Cassady, Mike Melick, Mike Danison, Bret Steed, Mike Paul, Rod Swingle, and Mike Adams.

And last but not least, Coach Barry Parsons was named the coach of the 1977 football year.

Arsenic and Old Lace

What would you do if two little old ladies were poisoning unsuspecting boarding customers and hiding the corpses in the celler?

Well, tonight is it for me here at Philo High School. It's the last basketball game I'll play on Philo's court. After playing four years on the varsity squad, it won't be easy hanging it up. Even though this gym is too small, I'll still miss playing on it.

I've bounced a lot of balls on that court and put a lot of balls through the net, but tonight will be the last time I'll ever do that. Along with all the other stuff I have done there, the one thing that will stay in my mind and heart forever is winning. Although we never won many, I still remember and feel as though we won every game.

I wonder if every player who is about to play his last game at home representing his high school feels the way I do now. Even though I can't wait to finish high school and carry on with my life, there is that little part of me that wishes I could start all over again.

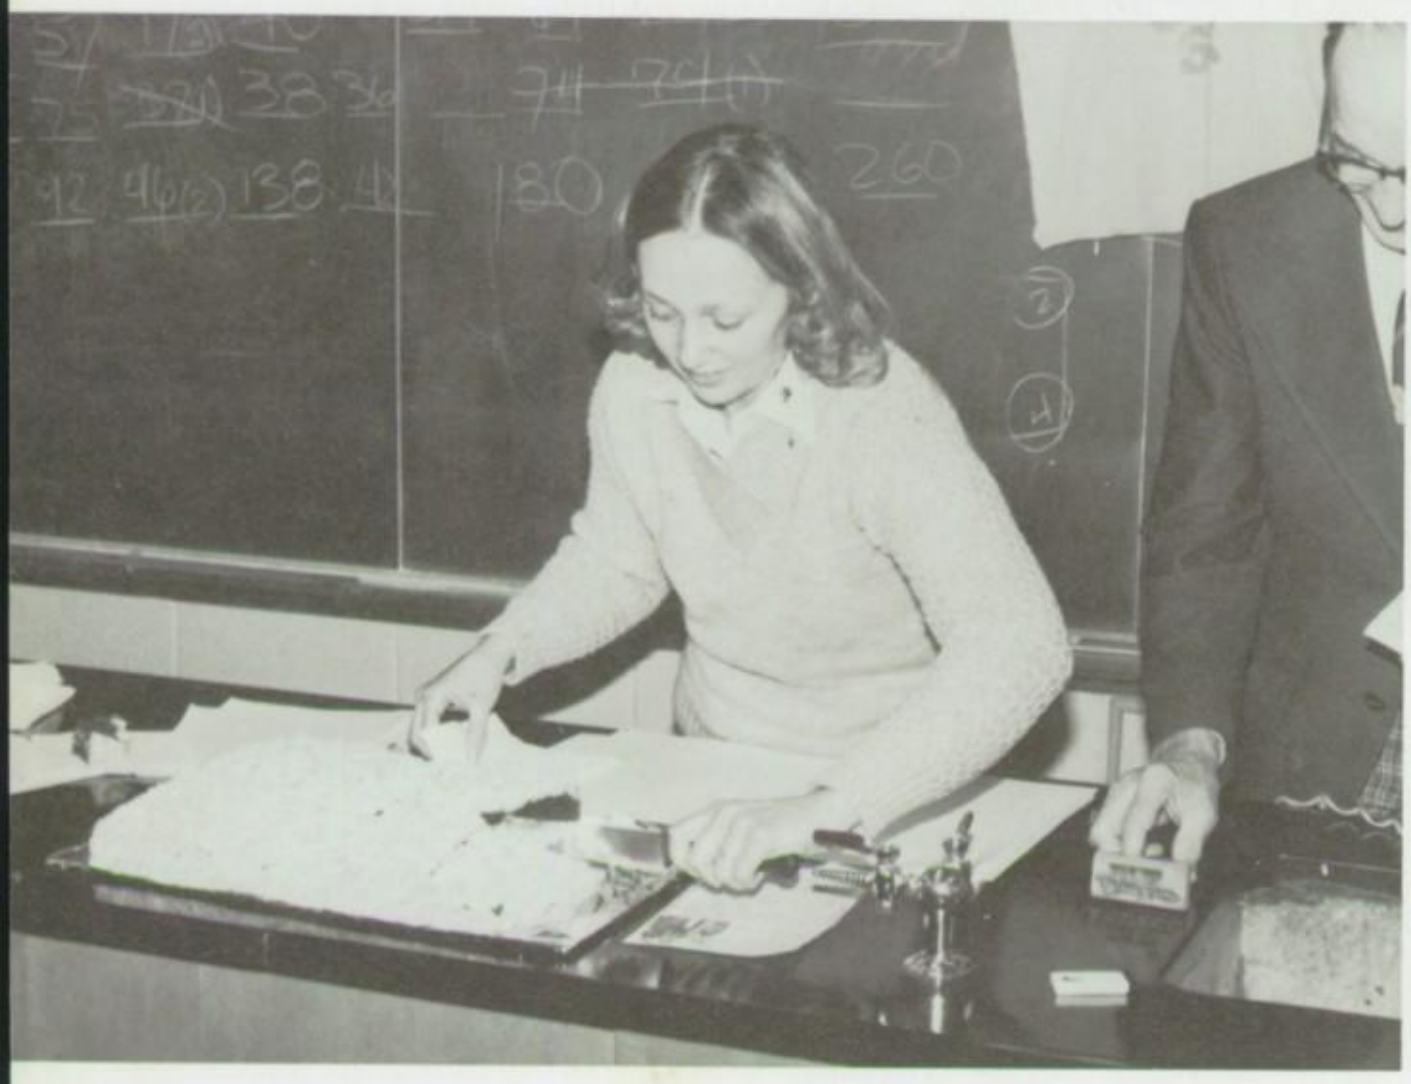
Couples dance to a slower song during the fun night.

These people really get into the music of the dance band.

Mr. George Dutro retired as an educator of the Franklin Local School District for the past thirty-two years. With this in mind, Mr. Dutro was recognized by family, friends and students for this outstanding job in a rendition of "This is Your Life!"

Mr. Dutro was presented with a token of appreciation.

Was the cake as good as it looks, Mr. Dutro?



Ms. Gebhart has worked closely with Mr. Dutro in the past few years.

Mr. Dixon served as the master of ceremonies.

A fellow worker, Mrs. Lichtner was at one time a student of Mr. Dutro's.

Science Department Head Retires After 32 Years

Mr. Bell put in a special appearance for the tribute.

Mrs. Dutro was proud to honor her husband.

Mr. Dutro was very touched by the special tribute.

Bobby Longendyke and Rocky Brownfield completed the list of Mr. Dutro's favorite "characters."

"THIS IS YOUR LIFE," NHS INDUCTEE!

Angela Ribble and Deb Wheeler escort Joe Lyon, a new inductee, to the stage during the ceremony.

Mrs. Hill and Mr. NHS share in a warm hug to span the years they have not seen one another.

The new members pose after their induction.

NHS president, Kim Thomas prepares to give the pledge to the members.

Every spring a select group of students are chosen on the basis of outstanding leadership, scholarship, character, and service to participate in our National Honor Society. The skit entitled, "This Is Your Life, NHS Inductee," called attention to these qualities. Mr. NHS represented the typical member. The skit proved fun and worthwhile for all involved.

Congratulations to the new inductees and past members!

The parents of the new inductees are hidden up in the balcony during the ceremony.

Kelly Kincaid receives her candle from Rnee Berkheimer and Janis Tumblin.

Lisa Trout reads the names of the new inductees, since she is the secretary.

The inductees stand with their ribbons and candles waiting until everyone has come to the stage before they say the pledge.

Sophomore Sharon Dietz is walked to the stage by Gretchen Green.

The Varsity choir, directed by Mrs. Ruth Allen and senior Jayne Luman, sang and danced to the music of "Rock 'n' Roll." The Central idea of the musical was to get Betsy Lou (Kim Thomas) and Corndoggie (Bryon Cartledge) together. The play also revolved around the feelings of Manfred (Jeff Brooks), Duffy (Eric Drake), Horace (Bob Dietrick), Bumpers (Dianne Revennaugh), and her friends. The audience was much amused and impressed by the talent of the choir.

It looks like Horace is really in "double trouble" this time.

Betsy Lou and Corndoggie embrace just before they are interrupted by the gang.

Johnny Saphire (Brian Morgan) sings the opening song.

"ROCK 'N' ROLL"

Betsy Lou (K. Thomas) applies her stage make-up before the dress rehearsel.

Manfred (J. Brooks), Duffy (E. Drake), and Corndoggie (B. Cartledge) tell the Jocks what they think of them in this song.

The entire cast appears on stage to take part in this dance number.

Bumpers (D. Revennaugh) says "Hello!" to Manfred (J. Brooks).

Milk, milk, milk, milk, milk, and even more milk is drunk in the lunchroom.

Those ice cream sandwiches are finger-lickin' good!

Our typical A lunch atmosphere abounds.

That will be fifty cents, Eric Mathes.

Some people prefer to brown bag it.

LIFE REVOLVING CAFETERIA STYLE

Although everyone went to the cafeteria to eat, other activities were available during lunches A, B, and C. The jocks sat around and talked up last week's victory or this coming week's games. The girls caught up on the latest gossip that had circulated since morning. The more studious ones found time to do some last minute cramming while munching on potato chips. Last but not least, both, boys and girls, were able to check out their latest infatuation and find out what he or she was doing. In contrast to the apparent gobbling-up of food, there was a lot of life revolving cafeteria-style.

These guys seem to only be interested in food, at the moment.

Mr. Hansgen, do you want gravy on your mashed potatoes?

Well, Eveie Hamilton, was it as good as it looked?

What is the name of that tune, Brenda Green?

Where are you going, Carol Shipley?

to be candid with YOU

Well, what's up, Eric Drake?

Are you keeping warm, Rusty Coen?

Vicki Kane, what are you doing with all those dandelions?

What is the story, Bill Tignor?

Brenda Gibson and Paul Mills, who are you watching?

How are you feeling, John Watson, after that hike in Hocking Hills?

Emily Ramsey, are you looking for the junior or senior seats?

What or who are you afraid of, Mindy Cable?

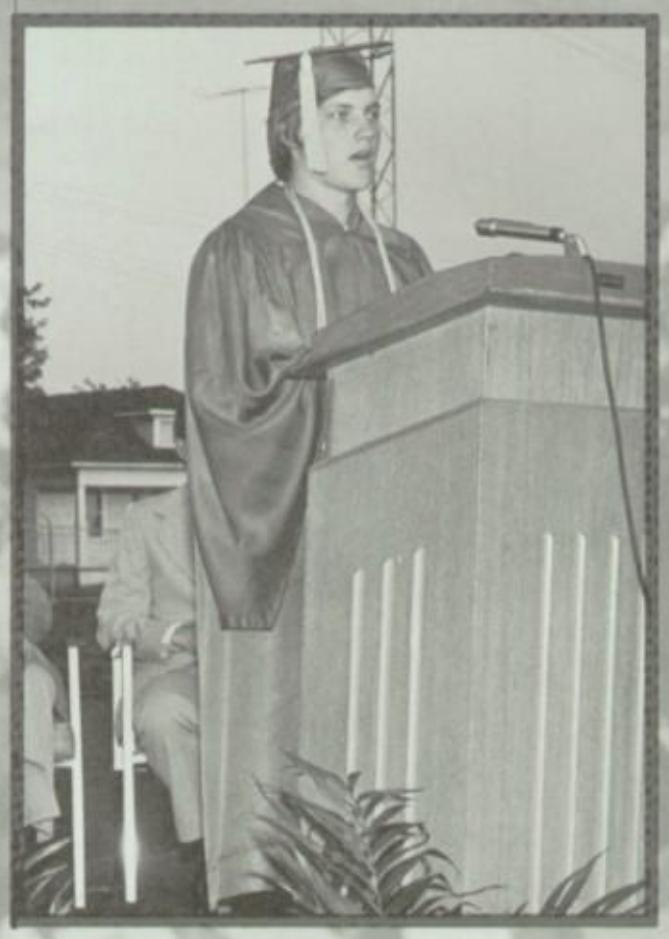
A DAY TO HONOR A CLASS

Several seniors were honored on class day with the presentation of various awards, but actually every senior is honored by the class day ceremony.

To begin the list, Mike Melick was chosen as the Honor Athlete. The Outstanding Senior Girl and Boy Choral awards went to Kim Thomas and Jeff Brooks. Jayne Luman was honored with the Outstanding Senior Award for four years in choir. The John Philip Sousa Award was received by Bruce Brownfield. Susie Wahl was presented the Daughters of American Revolution Award. Mike Melick was the winner of the Bausch & Lomb Science Award. The publications editors, Stacy Shreve, Kama Swingle, Tara Roberts, and Carol Shipley were recognized.

Mr. Bell announced Mike Melick as the class valedictorian and Tara Roberts as salutatorian.

The class history was read by Vicki Kane, Lisa Rucker, and Brenda Gibson. Gloria Davy and Jeff Brooks wrote and read the class prophecy. The class wills were read by Don Cassady, Mike Hannon, and Polly Rider.



Mike Melick was chosen as the valedictorian from a class of 198 for the commencement.

Chosen as salutatorian from her class was Tara Roberts.

Facts and Feelings

On May 28, 1978, 198 Philo High School seniors marched into the Sam Hatfield Stadium at 7:30 to begin baccalaureate and commencement exercises. Those were the facts, but what were the feelings?

For so many people to be gathered in one area, there surely was a multitude of emotions present, ranging from the height to depth of each particular feeling.

And what can be said for those who experienced mixed feelings of sadness and joy, or confusion and order?

Factually, graduation indicated the completion of 12 school years, but where will our feelings lead us from here?

Seniors join their fellow band members in one last tune.

Solemnly, Bob Blake takes his high school diploma.

Polly Rider receives her diploma from the school board president, Bryce Watt.

Graduates perform the ritual of "turning the tassel."

Reverend High was the speaker at the Baccalaureate ceremony.

Rita Alexander and her friends take time to talk before marching into the stadium.

Fern Powell helps Jena Weakley with her cap, which many found to be quite hard to keep on our heads.

Memories are images
Which are etched upon the mind
Flashbacks and reflections
Of another place and time.

Wishes, hopes, and promises
Made so long ago
That fade into remembrances
Of times we no longer know.

Like a motion-picture screen
Which plays within the mind
Those instances of our lives
In another place and time.

They are reflections in a whirlpool
Swirling round and round
Some are hazy, some are clear
Some are never to be found.

Our memories are growing
As we live each passing day
The list just gets longer
Of the things we do and say.

They can bring our lives great joy
As we remember a time gone by
When laughter filled our ears
And we enjoyed a peaceful life.

But memories can also hurt us
As things from out of our past
Keep popping up and haunting us
How long will they last?

Memories are heirlooms
We pass on throughout our years
To the people we care for . . .
With memories we fill their ears.

Memories are priceless
Yet they seem to age like wine
Getting better as they age
Yet, the same memories all the time.

And memories are like old friends
As we age and pass our prime
And begin to live on our memories
In an attempt to relive our life.

To whom it may concern,

As the editor of the Current, I would like to take this time and space to say a few things. I want to thank Nancy Hill from the bottom of my heart for helping anytime I needed help and just putting up with me. I would also like to thank the Roy Beadling Studio. Bob Murphy was a great photographer and even better person. Much of this yearbook would not have been possible without his help and cooperation.

The staff was unbelievable. All I had to do was ask and someone would volunteer for the job.

I think Sue Brown did an outstanding job with the cover design and artwork.

I'll end with one big THANK YOU to everyone for your support.

"With a new sense of pride,"
Tara Roberts

P.S. Thanks so much Mom, Dad, and Family!

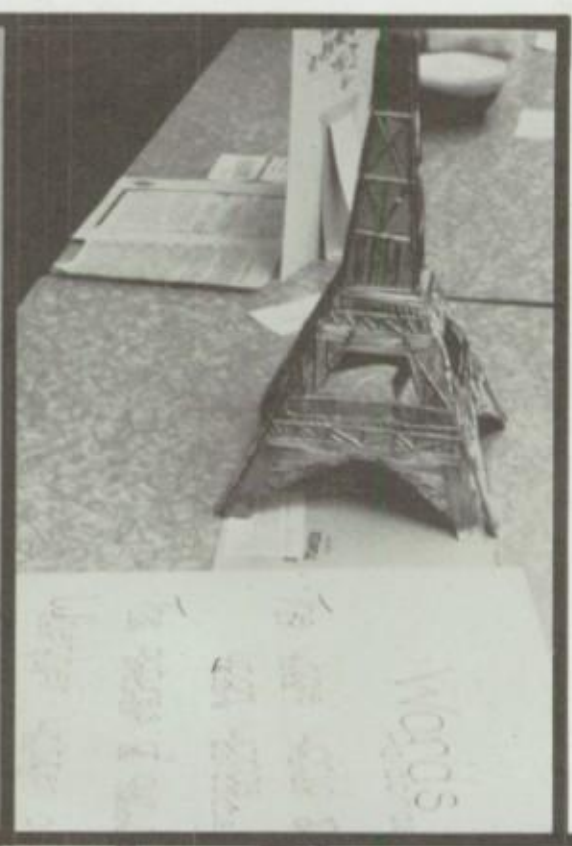
AND ORGANIZATIONS



The name of the game in our clubs and organizations was participation, for without people to get things done the groups would have dissolved. Participation was strong throughout the year; much was accomplished that had first appeared as a chance at a dream. One of the best examples was the group who helped to finance their trip to the Bahamas. Every year there are those students who get involved and get things done, but this time it was done "with a new sense of pride."

ELECTRIFIC STAFF

The editor of the Electrific was Stacy Shreve and the junior editor was Dee Ann Moore. The staff for the newspaper wrote articles, typed the chosen stories, wrote the headlines, and distributed the Electrific to the student body. It was very important that the staff be aware of what was happening in the school and with the students.

LITERARY MAGAZINE STAFF

Kama Swingle held the position of literary magazine editor. Deciding on the specific stories, on a title, and arranging the many articles according to their division were some of the responsibilities of the staff. The title of the literary magazine was "New Dimensions." The junior editor was Lisa Davis.

CURRENT STAFF

The Current editor was Tara Roberts. The staff of the yearbook had to decide on several things such as a cover design, a theme, the areas to be covered, the pictures to be used, and the captions for the pictures. The theme was "With a New Sense of Pride." The junior editor was Shari Barclay.

Through the combined efforts of the journalism class, many areas of student interest were made public, which is a huge job. The class advisor was Mrs. Nancy Hill. Carol Shipley was the business manager. Debbie Wheeler was the junior manager.

JOURNALISM CLASS

STUDENT COUNCIL

The purpose of the Student Council is to support the student body and provide for the Friday night Homecoming Ceremonies. The advisor of the Student Council was Mr. Uppole. The officers were Kim Taylor, president; Mel Trout, vice-president; Vicki Kane, secretary; Sharon Dietz, treasurer, and Teri Wheeler, corresponding secretary (not pictured).

Biology Lab Aids

The biology lab aids were helpful in the running of all aspects of the routine classes. Ms. Gebhart's group works partially on a teacher aid basis. This acquaints the students with more than testing and grading.

STUDENT WORK PROGRAMS

The Student Work Program provides for work experience. The jobs range from cafeteria to office practice. Miss McNulty helped to institute this program.

LAB BAND

The lab band practiced during the fourth period, performing more contemporary music than what is heard during the marching season. This class gives the students a chance to play some of the latest songs. Mr. Hansgen directed the lab band.

GAA

The GAA club officers are Carol Shipley, president; Jackie Gallogly, vice-president (not pictured); Camar Cartwright, secretary; and Barb Sowers, treasurer. The advisor for the group is Phyllis Morgan.

Varsity club officers are Bret Steed, president; Don Robbins, vice-president; Don Cassady, secretary; and Dave Scott, treasurer. The advisors are Tom O'Reilly and John Vanaman.

FCA

The FCA officers are Don Cassady, captain; Randy Wilson, co-captain; Johnnie Henderson, secretary; and Diane Wilson, treasurer.

The purpose of the organization is for athletes and coaches, to confront the youth of America with the challenging adventure of accepting Jesus Christ and serving him in their daily lives and in their vocations.

VARSITY CLUB

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

To honor those students possessing the four qualities, leadership, service, character, and scholarship, and to promote academic activities is the purpose of the club.

The National Honor Society officers are president Kim Thomas (not pictured), vice-president Brenda Bates, secretary Lisa Trout, and treasurer Becky Driggs. The advisor is Mrs. Lichtner.

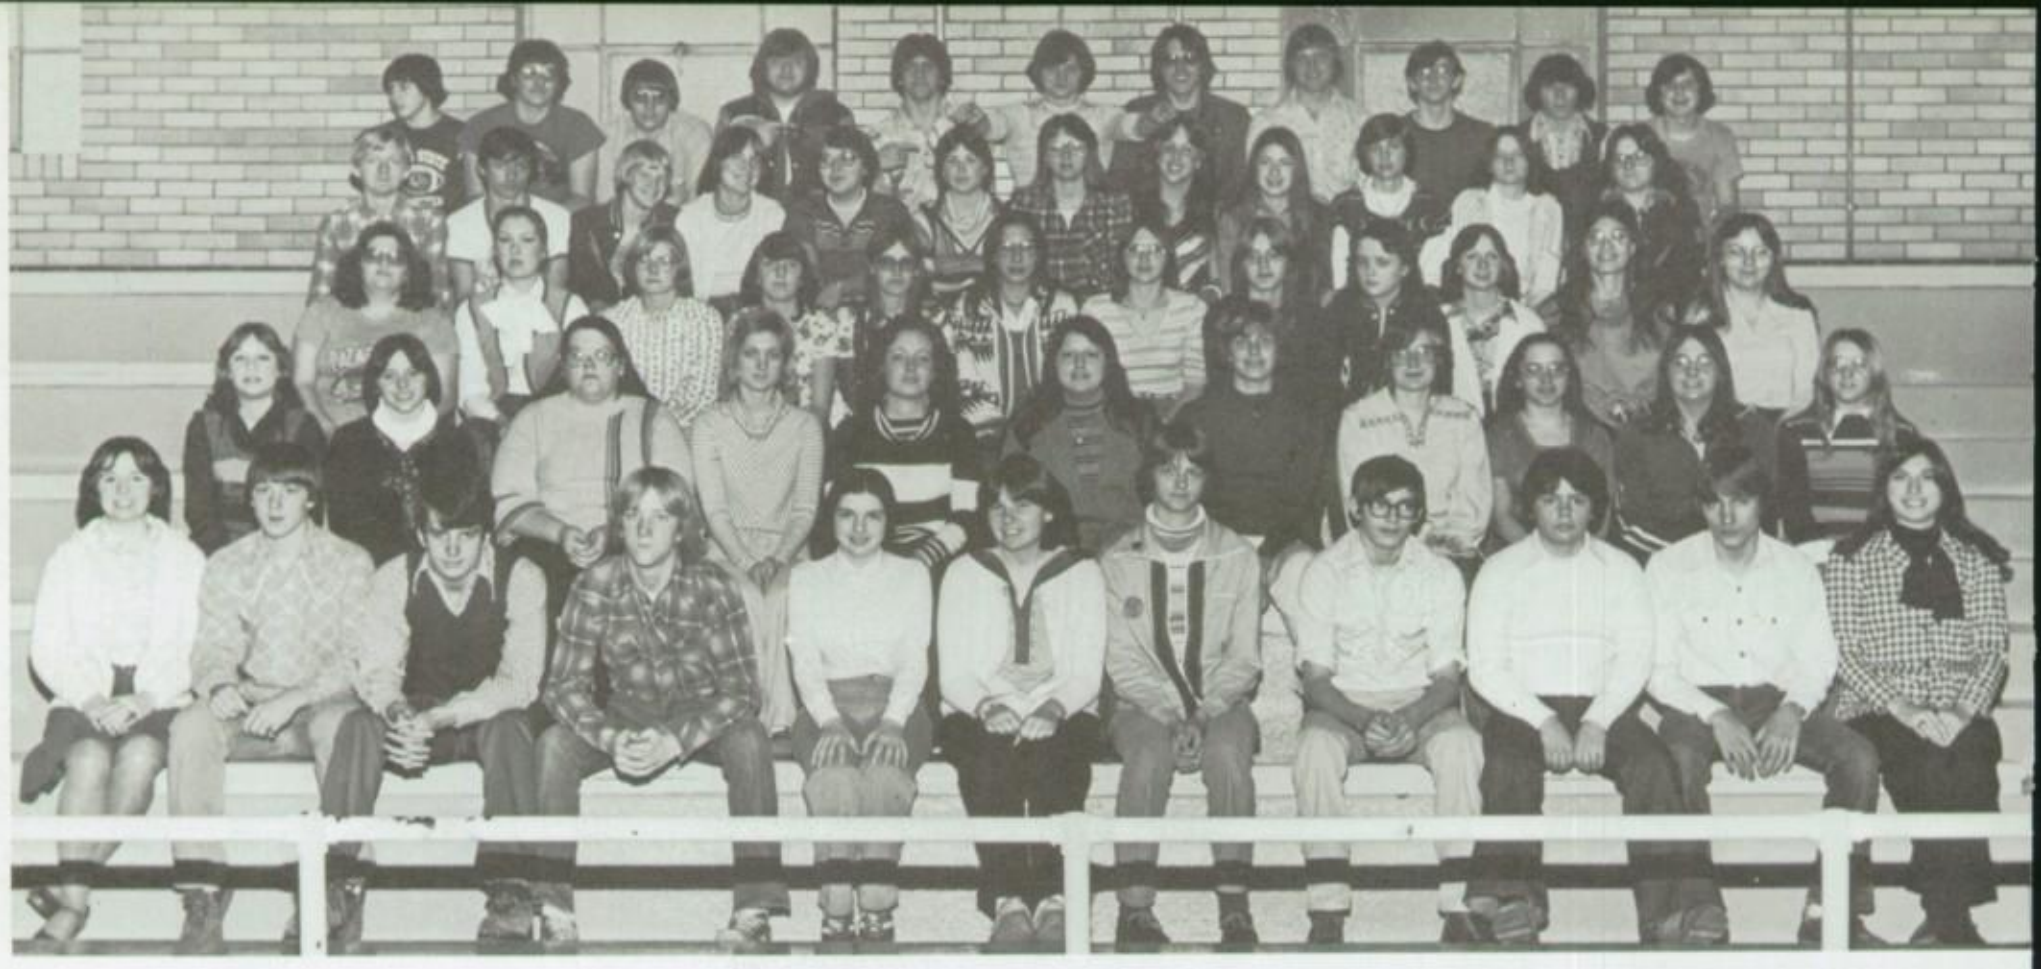
The Library Club advisor is Mrs. Judy Birch. The officers are Kelly Kincaid, president; Karen Liford, vice-president; Carla Tysinger, secretary; and Vicki Van Meter, treasure (not pictured).

Mrs. Smith, the library aid, and Scott Franklin check the movie projector with John DeGarmo.

SCIENCE CLUB

Library Club

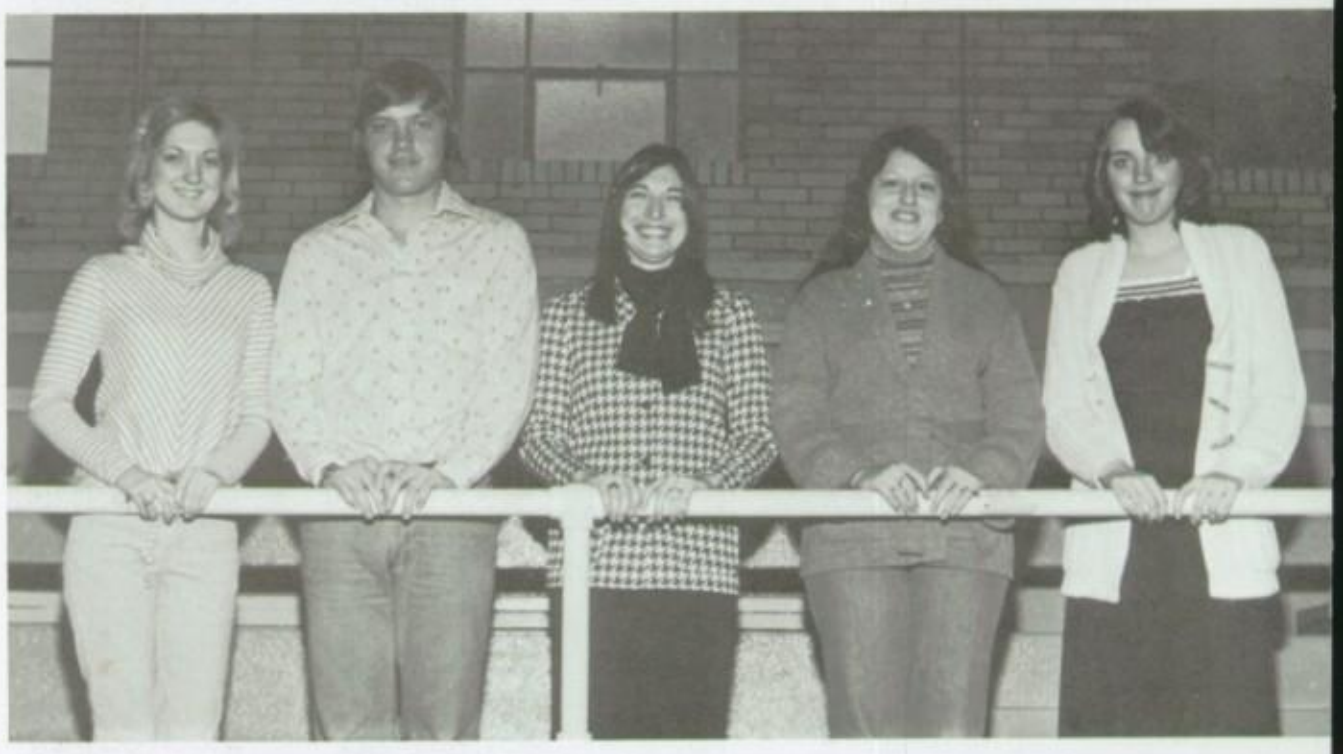
The purpose is to create interest in the library and to assist its users in any way possible.

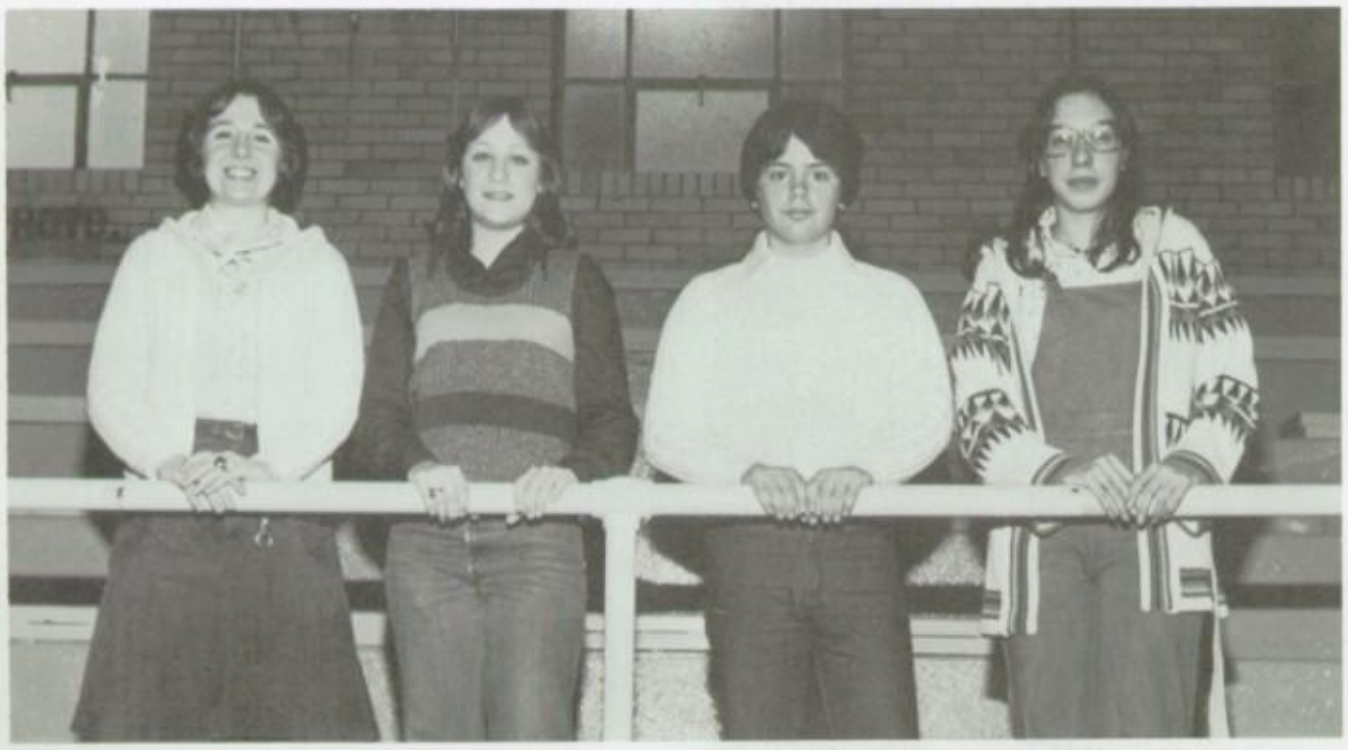


Spanish Club

Practicing Spanish and familiarizing the members with the customs and culture of Spanish speaking people is the goal of the Spanish Club with Mrs. Brown as the advisor.

Julie Houston, Mike Melick, Emila Smith, Teresa Besser, and Penny Spicer will join Mrs. Brown this summer on a trip to Spain.



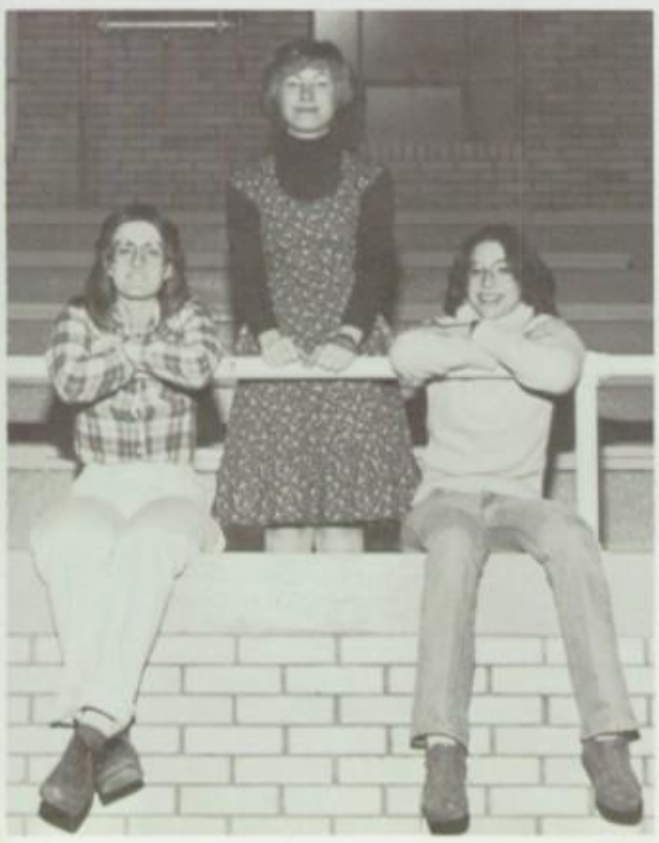


Serving as officers for the Spanish Club were Eric Drake and Angela Ribble (not pictured) co-presidents; vice-president Mel Trout, secretary Mel Bates, and treasurer Joyce Van Horn.

GERMAN CLUB

The purpose of the German Club is to create more interest in the German language and to learn more about all German speaking countries.

The German Club officers were Carmela Godfrey, president; Sharon Dietz, vice-president; Karen Ritchey, secretary; Cathy Henderson, treasurer; and Marcia Aler. Mrs. Sharon Allen is the German Club advisor.



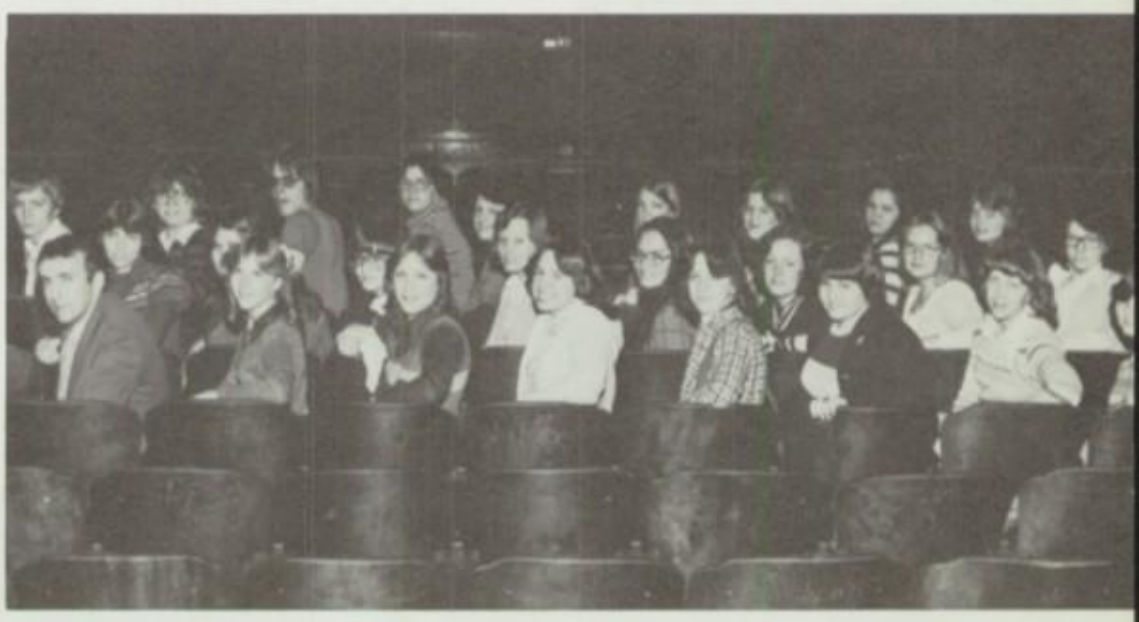
FRENCH CLUB

The French Club officers were Rnee Berkheimer, president; Janis Tumblin (not pictured), vice-president; Abby Varner, secretary; and Kama Swingle, treasurer. The advisor for the French Club is Mr. Thomas Uppole.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB

The advisor for the Future Homemakers was Jane Richardson. The officers of FHA were Deb Varner, president; Carol Rittenhouse, vice-president; Jan Embrey, secretary/treasurer; and Sherry Mitchell, news reporter/ parliamentarian.

The Industrial Arts Club officers were Bill Mill, president; Kevin Phillip, vice-president; and Kevin Adkins, secretary/treasurer. The advisor was Mr. Heigley.



Mr. Richard Spurgeon advises the Future Teachers Organization. The officers were Mel Bates, president; Mel Trout, vice-president, Laurie Mummert, secretary; and Mary Frame, treasurer.

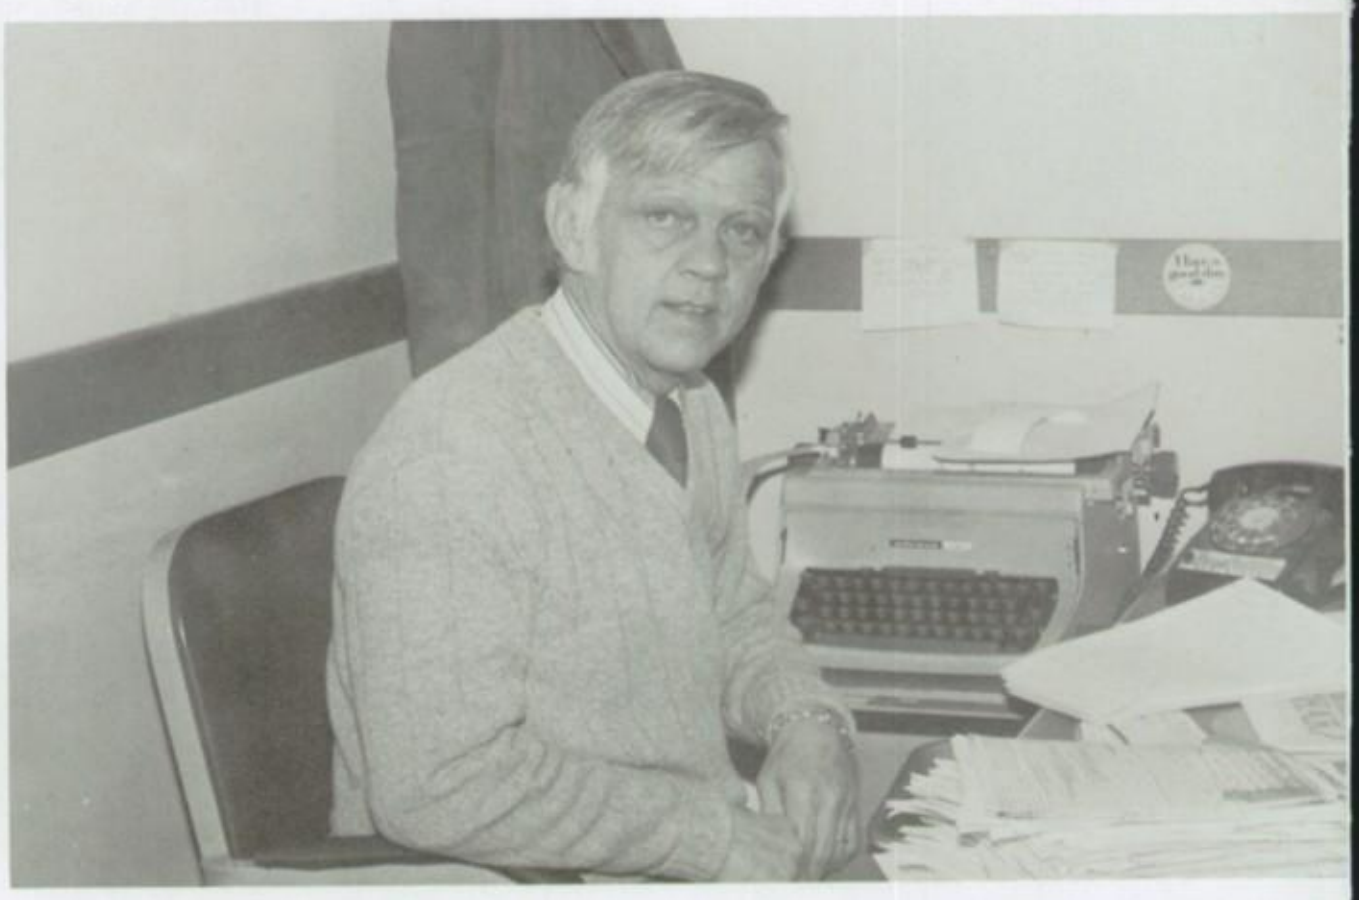
PEOPLE

People have different shapes, sizes, colors, personalities, opinions, abilities, beliefs, religions, levels of intelligence, and habits. These and others make people individuals, but all individuals share one thing in common. That is the quality of a supreme human being. People can recognize these differences and accept them "with a new sense of pride."

Having graduated from Muskingum College, Mrs. Ruth Ann Allen has been in this school system for eleven years.

Ruth Ann enjoys camping and the community theatre. Besides directing the choirs, Mrs. Allen teaches humanities. She also directs a vocal swing ensemble, the Hi Lo's.

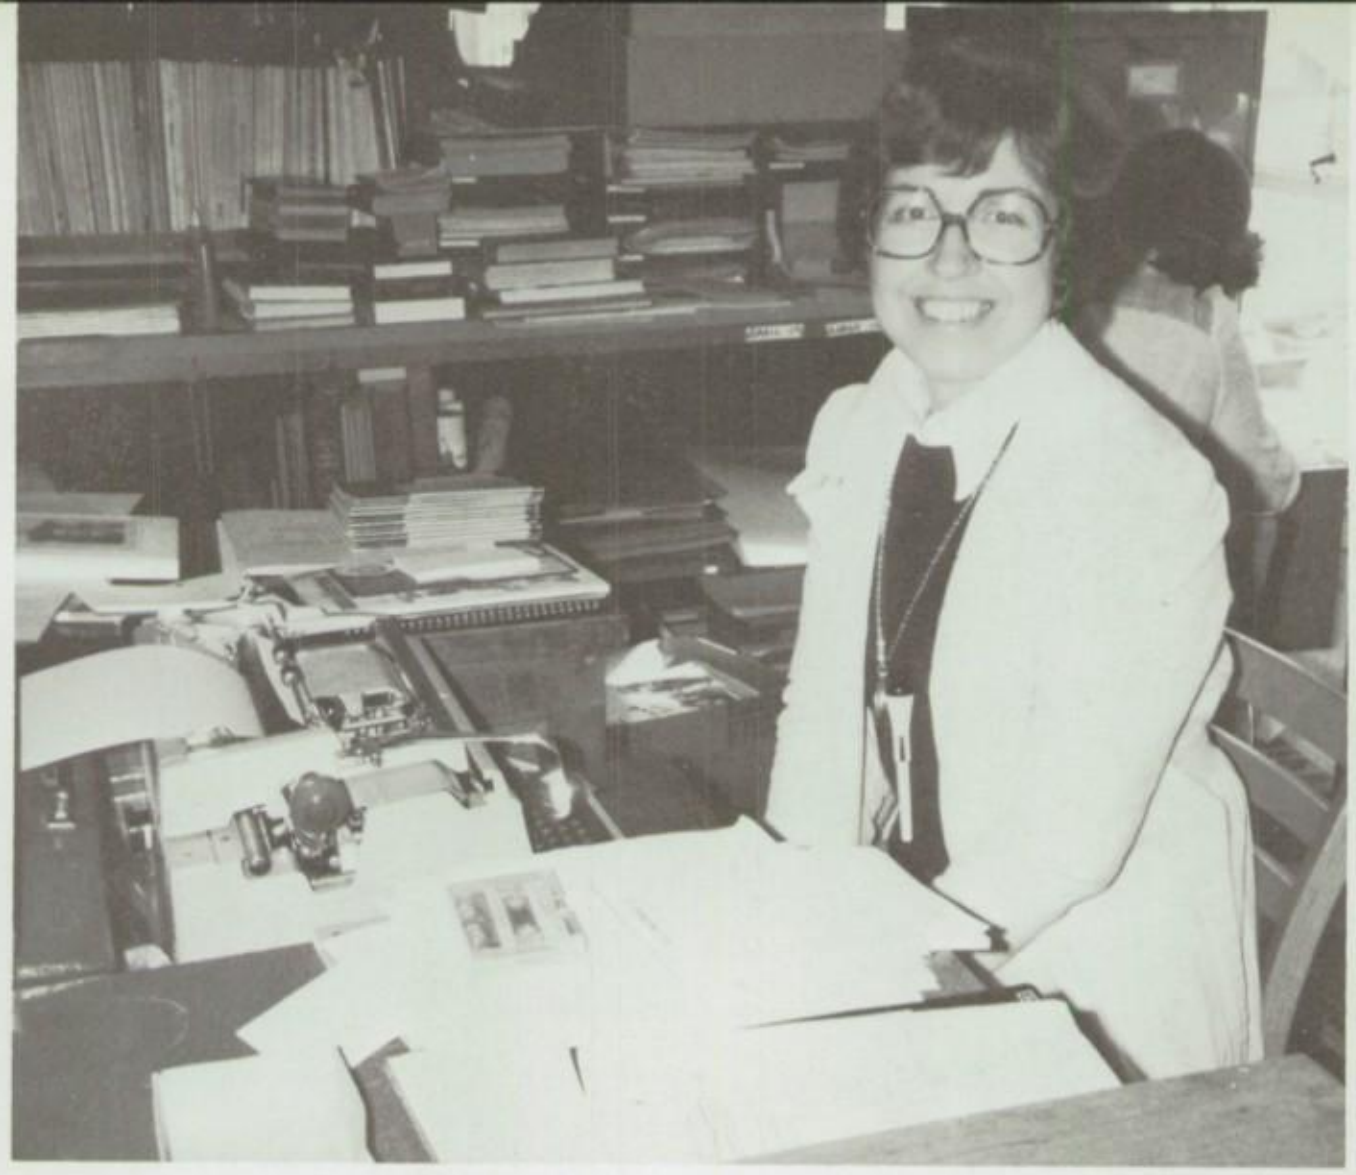
Golf and wood-working are special interests and hobbies of John Buchholtz. He graduated from Wittenberg University, and then received his Master's Degree from Ohio University in education.



Mrs. Linda Beougher, though in this school system for only one half year, had taught previously at Circleville and Lewisburg, Ohio. Linda's special interests include reading, sewing, and church activities.

Co-advisor of the Buzzing Electrics Quiz Team, Ruth Ault teaches Math 1, Fundamentals, and Plane Geometry. Having taught at Licking Valley High School, Newark, Ohio last year, this is Mrs. Ault's first year at Philo.

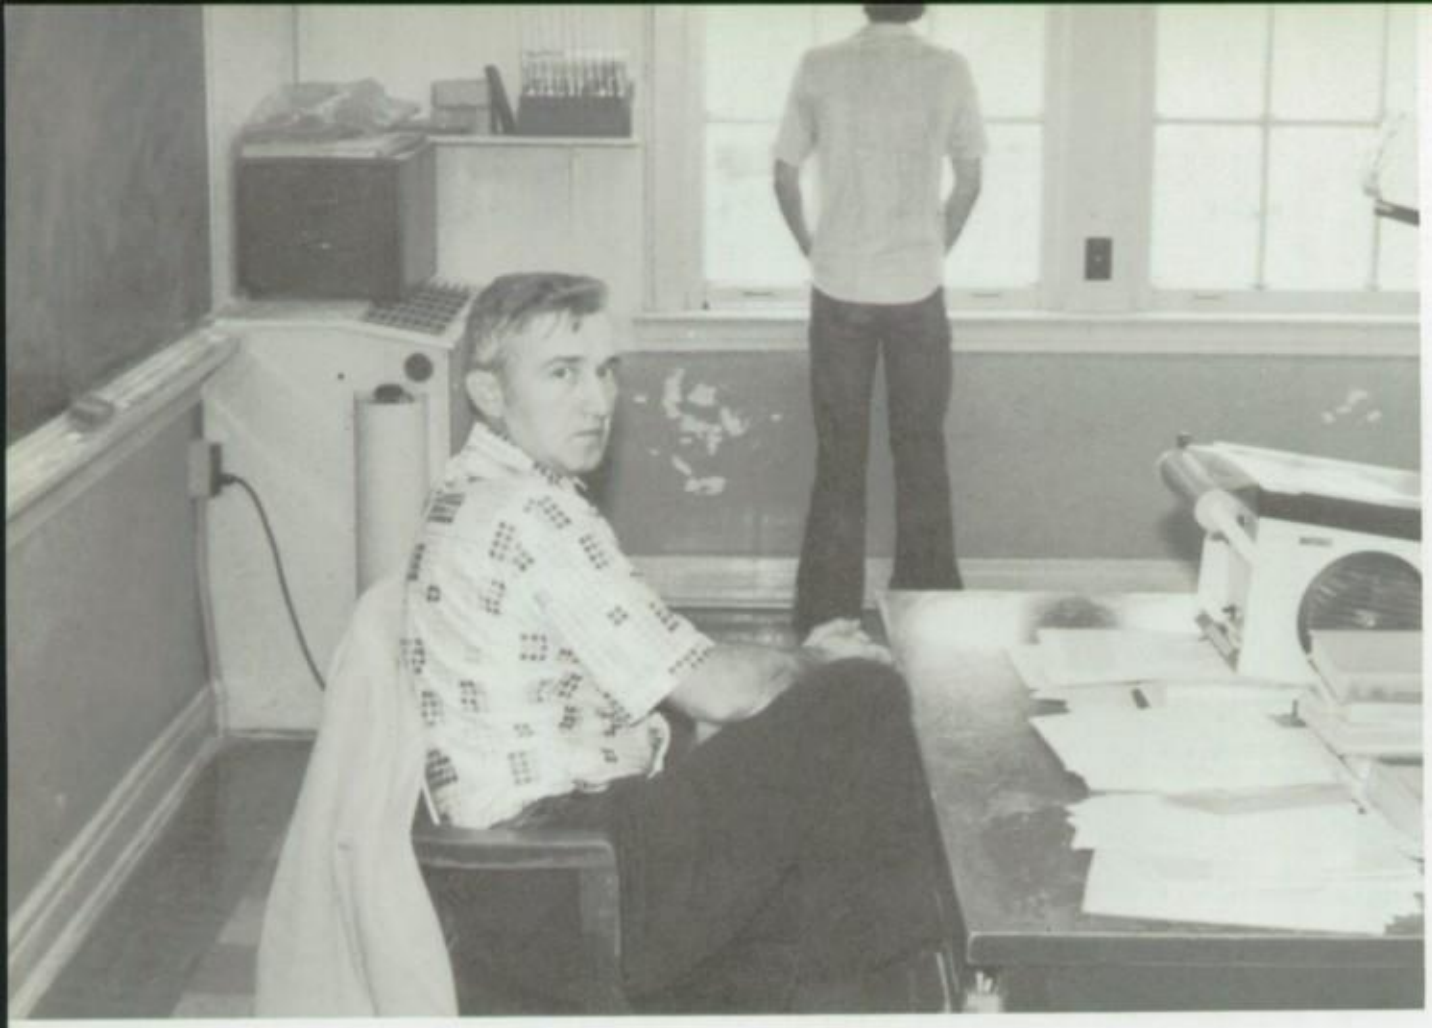
Franklin Local Teachers' Association president, Terry Allen has taught math courses in this system for six years. Terry graduated from Eastern Kentucky University and enjoys refinishing furniture and guns.



Head librarian, Judy Birch enjoys jogging and family activities. Mrs. Birch is the treasurer of the Muskingum County Librarians Association.

During the summer of 1978, Carolyn Brown will take a nine day trip to Spain acting as AIFS counselor. Mrs. Brown belongs to the New Concord Area Jaycee Women and the League of Women Voters.

Mrs. Sharon Allen, the German Club advisor, attended two workshops sponsored by the Ohio Education Association during the summer of 1977. Hiking, bike riding, reading, and historical research are Mrs. Allen's hobbies and special interests. Sharon graduated from Eastern Kentucky University.



The sophomore class advisor, Mr. Fred Dietz, teaches Algebra, Advanced Math, and Senior Math. Fred's special interests include growing vegetables in the summer and deer hunting in the winter. Mr. Dietz is a graduate of Ohio State University and has been here for eight years.

George Dutro, head of the science department, has been with the school system for 32 years. George graduated from Muskingum College and teaches General Science. He is the freshman class advisor and is also interested in hunting and gardening.

Metal machining and metal fabrication teacher, Bernard Heigley likes farming and building. Since his graduation from Ohio University, Mr. Heigley has been teaching for five years in this school system.

Most Chemistry students will agree that teaching for six years at Philo has left its mark on Mr. Dixon, since he admits to enjoying working mole problems. His other interests include fishing, backpacking, woodworking, and teaching Sunday school.

Carol Gebhart, Biology and Environmental Science teacher, claims a federal teaching grant as a recent award. Ms. Gebhart's Environmental II class was in preparation for their trip to the island of Andro in the Bahamas. Carol's hobbies include archery, snorkling, backpacking, and nature photography.

Traveling through the western states of the United States was an enjoyable experience for Sylvia Cornett this last summer. In addition to traveling, Mrs. Cornett likes to read and work with crafts.

Reserve basketball coach, Myron Goins, is appropriately interested in basketball, hunting, and fishing. He is also the co-advisor of the senior class. General Science and Health are Mr. Goins' area of instruction.

A Miami University graduate, Judith Cale had returned from Australia less than a year before coming to teach in our system. She had taught at Bunbury Catholic College, Bunbury, Australia previously.

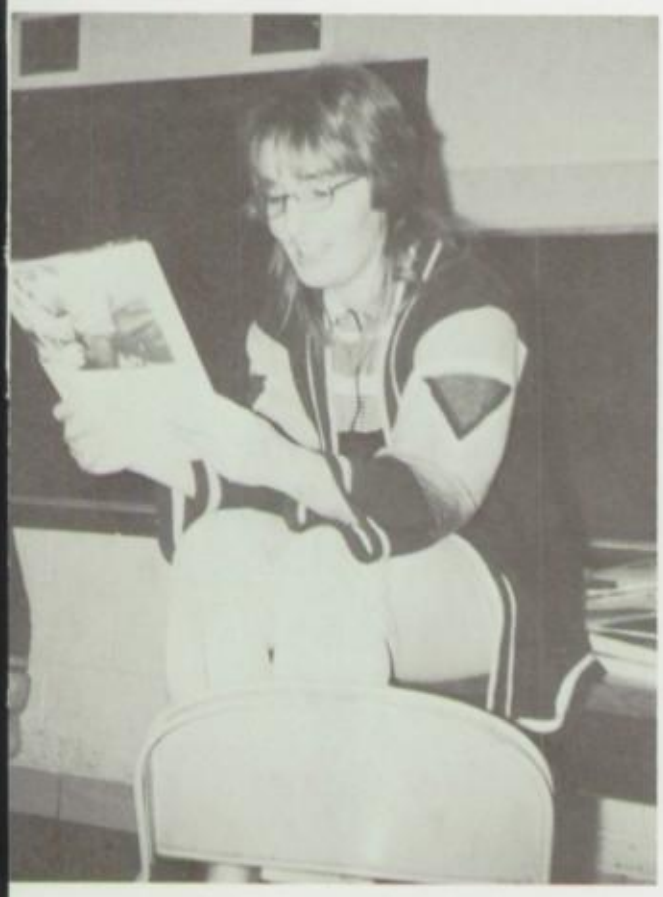
Journalism class advisor, Mrs. Nancy Hill is the recording secretary for the Journalism Association of Ohio Schools. Small Talk and her cats are Nancy's special interests.

Carl Hansgen is the director of the pep band, marching band, and concert band. He has been instructing the instrumental portion of music in this system for fifteen years.

Dillard Higgins, an Ohio University graduate, has been the assistant band director for the past five years. Mr. Higgins' special interests are writing, reading, and music.

Mr. Melragon's most recent award was "Most Likely to be covered with ink." He belongs to a society of loose knit practices. One of Gilbert Melragon's hobbies is petting horned lizards. Last summer he framed a house, milked a goat, and paid the rent. Mr. Melragon has been teaching Plastics, Crafts, House Construction, and Drafting for the last two years.

Janeen Lichtner, head of the English department, was the NHS advisor. Last summer she studied for and took her pre-doctoral compositions.



Horses, sewing, reading, gourmet cooking, and home restoration are Mrs. Linda Higgins hobbies and special interests. She was also the Dramatics Club advisor and the drama director. Mrs. Higgins graduated from Ohio State University.

Kathy Jo McNulty was the Special Education and Occupational Training Instructor. Miss McNulty is interested in art, jazz music, playing the clarinet, and Bible study. Kathy also helped out with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

The volleyball coach, girls' varsity basketball coach, and GAA advisor is Miss Phyllis Morgan. Phyllis plays volleyball, basketball, tennis, and lacrosse; she also enjoys swimming and throwing the frisbee. During the last summer Miss Morgan was a life guard.

Jane Richardson worked on her master's degree last summer and did some travelling, too. Mrs. Richardson is the Future Homemakers advisor; she is also interested in biking, reading, camping, foods, and beagles.

A representative to the superintendent's advisory council, Ron Patterson is also the baseball coach. Working for Franklin Life Insurance and Bland Coffey Realty, he found both jobs very rewarding and interesting.

Marilyn Murphree, a guidance counselor, enrolled in a master's degree program at Central Michigan University in personnel management. She belongs to the Delta Kappa Gamma Educational Society, Alphi Psi Chapter. Her hobbies are crafts, antiques, refinishing furniture and music.

Janis Petti graduated from Bowling Green State University with a Bachelor of Science in Education. She teaches Business Law/Economics, Shorthand 1, General Business, and Personal Typing.

Terry Ohlinger is the athletic director and Sociology and Consumer Education teacher. He has been with this school for seven years.

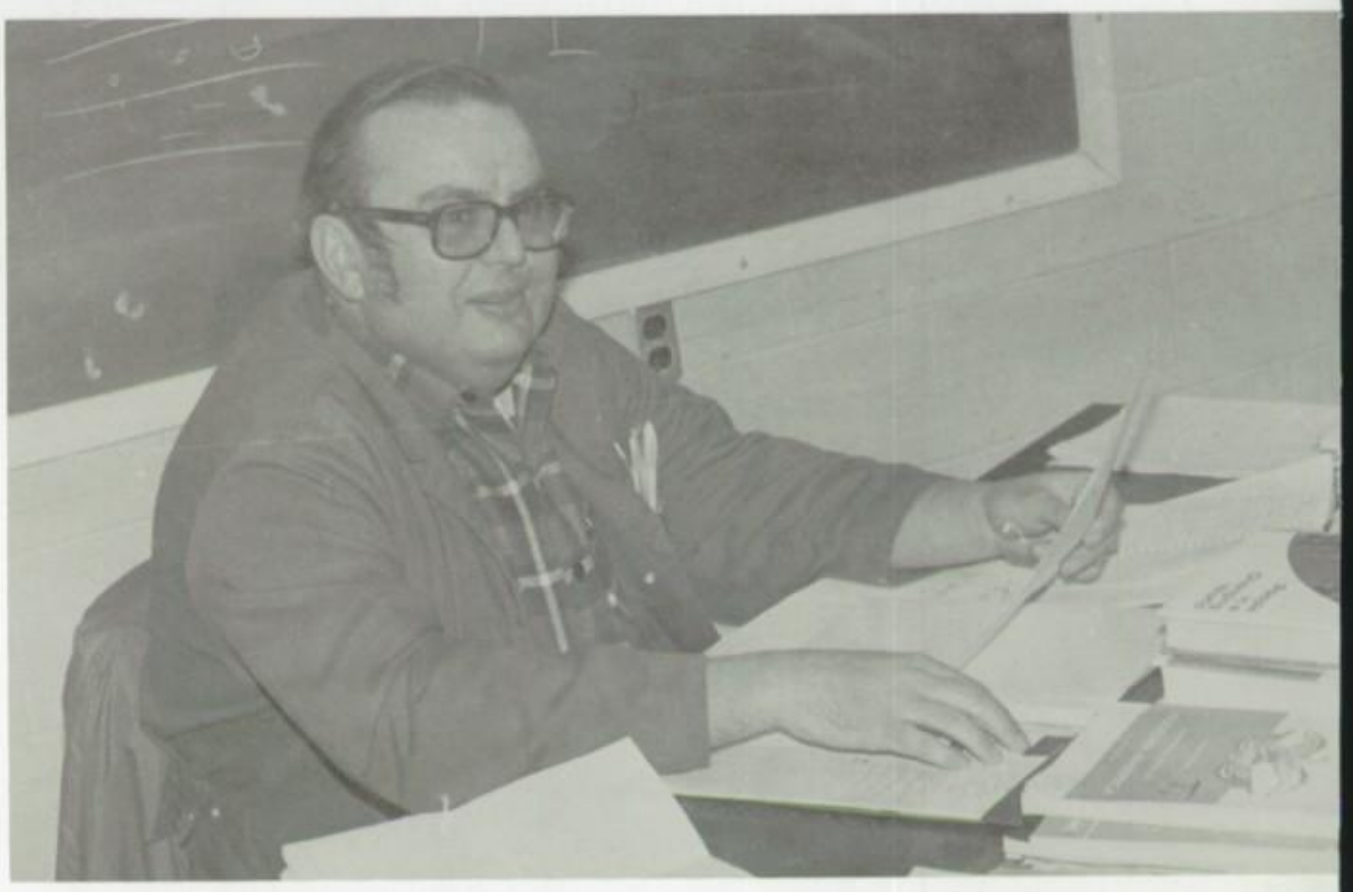
During last summer Karen Rogers lived in a tent on 80 acres near Athens, Ohio. At this time she sketched and went to a spinning and weaving bee. She enjoyed many campfires, the open air, and quiet moments. Mrs. Rogers interests include antiques, spinning wool, natural dying and weaving, ceramics, drawing, and painting.

Mr. Tom O'Reilly's special interests include gardening, music, reading, tennis, and his wife. His recent honors and awards were to be voted "Best Friend," and "Most Handsome" by his wife. Among other things, he was the assistant varsity football coach. During his summer travels he visited the New England states, Venus, Mars and he hopes to see heaven some day!

Football coach of the 1977 MVL champs, Barry Parsons has been with the coaching staff for five years. Barry graduated from Muskingum College.

Not only is he a Little League Baseball coach, but Mr. Richard Spurgeon is also the head of the social studies department. Other than teaching history, Mr. Spurgeon enjoys reading and sports, too.

Before coming to teach Power Machines and Woodworking, Mr. Gary Warner was an instructor at the Hesperia Christain School, Hesperia, California five years ago. In his spare time he teaches Sunday school and works on home restoration and auto repairs.



John Vanaman was the varsity basketball coach and co-advisor for the junior class. He graduated from Muskingum College and now teaches Civics and Historical Studies.

Teaching American History, World Geography, and Historical Studies, Robert Wilson is also a Driver's Education instructor during the summer. Mr. Wilson graduated from Urbana University, and he is now the wrestling coach. He likes to hunt and fish when he has time.

An alumni of West Liberty State College, Mr. Thomas Uppole is the French Club and Student Council advisor. His hobbies range from stamps, coins, and reading to watching the antics of his little daughter, Darlene.

THE END

The year ended fine for seniors graduating on that warm Sunday night of May 28, 1978. As for the remaining student body and faculty, the last school day finally came on June 9th, due to the snow days. It was more than difficult to imagine the extreme cold weather and snow of the past winter which delayed the closing of school through those last hot and humid make-up days.

Another year passed through our lives, but the end came "With a New Sense of Pride."

Teresa,
To a really
sweet & nice person.
Remember all the fun we had on the bus! Good luck in the future & may God Bless you.
